PART II

A. TYPE OF CHANGE PROPOSED (Check the appropriate items(s) and complete the appropriate sections(s) below)
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Title	<input type="checkbox"/> Description	<input type="checkbox"/> Prerequisite
<input type="checkbox"/> Code	<input type="checkbox"/> Deletion	<input type="checkbox"/> Corequisite
<input type="checkbox"/> Credit Hours	<input type="checkbox"/> General Ed Designation	<input type="checkbox"/> Prerequisite/corequisite
B. TITLE CHANGE
Current Short Title: Introduction to Psychology, Part 2 (30 character limit, including spaces)
Current Long Title: Introduction to Psychology, Part 2
RECOMMENDED NEW SHORT TITLE: General Psychology II
RECOMMENDED NEW LONG TITLE: General Psychology II
Rationale to Support Change: General Psychology II is a more accurate description for the material covered in this course. PSYC 106 presents an overview of practical applications of psychological concepts, such as how emotions, motivation, stress, personality, mental illness, and group behavior related to issues of everyday living. The current title (in addition to PSYC 105) erroneously suggests that there are two separate introductions to the same discipline.
