

Business Administration MBA— Montclair State University at the Communiversity

Admission Requirements:

Applicants must have earned a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, and submit GMAT scores, references, a personal statement, and a current resume. For details, see http://sbus.montclair.edu/mba/admission_requirements.html.

How to Apply:

The preferred method of applying is through the online application at <http://www.montclair.edu/graduate/prospective/app.shtml>, where you also may download an application, or request one be mailed to you. You may call the Graduate School at Montclair State University at 973-655-5147.

Application Deadlines:

MBA applications are processed on a rolling basis, and may be submitted at any time. However, there is usually only one Communiversity MBA cohort each year, beginning in February (see http://sbus.montclair.edu/mba/saturday_mba.html for details). You will want to submit all your credentials as far in advance as possible of the start date to be sure your application can be reviewed. Typically, a decision will be made in 2 weeks; you'll be notified when a decision is made, and then will have an advising appointment with the MBA Director.

Part-Time/Full-Time:

This is a Saturday only MBA program, divided into eight (8) ten-week terms of two (2) three-credit courses per term. Students can complete their MBA degree in just under two years. See http://sbus.montclair.edu/mba/saturday_mba.html for complete program details.

Location:

The Communiversity classes are held on Brookdale's Lincroft campus. While program delivery is primarily on-site, there may be distance learning components to selected courses.

Tuition:

The cost to NJ residents is $635.31 per credit for 2008-2009 academic year; non-NJ residents, $854.99 per credit.

Waivers

Up to five core courses (15 credits) may be waived based on prior coursework, undergraduate or graduate, with permission of the MBA Director; the remaining 33 hours must be completed through Montclair State University.

Transfer Credit:

A maximum of two courses (6 credits) of similar graduate coursework taken at another AACSB graduate school, not credited toward another degree, with grades of B or better and with permission of the MBA Director; maximum combination of waivers and transfer credit, five (5) courses (15 credits).

Degree FAQ:

See the complete program FAQ for the Montclair State University MBA through Communiversity at http://sbus.montclair.edu/mba/saturday_mba.html#faq

How many credits are required?

33-48 hours; the 48-hour MBA may be reduced by up to 15 credits through prior academic experience, challenge examinations, and/or graduate level transfer credits. The remaining 33 hours, and all advanced courses, must be completed through Montclair State University. Eligibility for advanced standing is determined at the time of a student's initial advising appointment.

Can I attend courses at the home campus as well?

Communiversity MBA students may take any MBA elective course (assuming completion of pre-requisites) on the Montclair State University campus, especially if they seek to complete one (or two) of the available concentrations.
