

NEW MATRIX WITH “BIG IDEA” GOALS

I. ACHIEVING STUDENT ACCESS	II. PROVIDING ACCESS WITH OPPORTUNITY	III. IMPLEMENTING A 21 ST CENTURY “ONE BROOKDALE’	IV. ENGAGING AND DEVELOPING THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY OF THE COUNTY
All actions will support student success:	All Monmouth County residents will have opportunity to access the educational option most necessary for their success	A state-of-the-art Brookdale, with its visionary, technologically sophisticated, diverse and intellectually prepared faculty, administrators and staff, are integrated as a unified, collegial, collaborative organization committed to the absolute achievement of its Mission for student success.	Brookdale will be the “hub” of community action in revitalizing the economic vitality of the county; and, through its networks and resources, establish partnerships and collaboration which will sustain and continue Monmouth County’s “Quality of Life”.
1. Student Development will facilitate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Student capability b. Student needs to achieve capability c. Support for students to meet their needs d. Special student assistance e. Holistic student development, social, academic, personal, career f. All student development will be integrated and expedient and “service focused” 2. Educational Student Development: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Integrated efforts to advise, education, support and assess b. Comprehensive support for academic achievement; advisement; tutorial; support labs and personnel; definition of expectation; freshman year experience 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1. All Higher Education Centers will be comprehensive and integrated to Lincroft and Freehold campus. 2. Expanded online learning and alternative access initiatives: experiential; collaborative internship; international access. 3. Short term and long term access to employment and career programs 4. Targeting urban and non-traditional environments and potential student population with certification, degree program, lifelong learning, cultural enriched and personal development 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Commit to a culturally diverse employee and student environment; representative of our community and the nation 2. Commit to a technologically sophisticated teach and working environment with the epitome of training and application of efficient and effective system of operation. 3. Commit to continuous development of faculty, staff and leadership to the highest levels of performance and achievement. 4. Commit to world-class gold standard facilities and teaching leaving modalities that are continually upgraded and refined. 5. Commit to an integrated, collegial approach to placing, academic development, implementation of student/college engagement. 6. Commit to comprehensive collaboration with colleges, universities and schools along with community-based organizations to facilitate an integrated continuum of educational success for all students and clients of Brookdale. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Aggressively partner with all appropriate governmental and policy agencies and groups to strengthen the local, regional and state economies. 2. Align curriculum and short-term training initiatives with County Strategic Plan and focused needs in terms of long-term economic growth. 3. Provide at all of its sites the capacity for making Monmouth County a “destination venue”. 4. Align facilities, technology and personnel with programs and academic series targeted to meet the emerging economic needs of the county, the region and the state.