

APR 1. 25. 12

Ridolfi, Butler lead Brookdale win

Sophomore guards Kim Ridolfi (Middletown North) and Nya Butler (Lakewood) scored 18 points apiece Tuesday night to lead the host Brookdale Community College women's basketball team past Bergen County College, 74-52.

Sophomore guard Stephanie Carlone (Marlboro) and freshman forward Eden Obou each netted 10 points for the Jersey Blues (12-4). Bergen is 7-11.

The host Ocean County College women's team bested Camden County College, 71-36, behind 22 points from sophomore center Liz Lawler (Lacey). Freshman guard Amber Nafziger (Lakewood) added 12 points and sophomore guard Amanda Fernandez (Toms River South) contributed 10 for the Vikings (12-2). Camden is 4-13.

In men's action, Brookdale, ranked sixth in National Junior College Athletic Association Division III at 15-1, downed Bergen, 91-67, behind 25 points from Kevin Ohen. Khalil Bennett added 12 and Josh Bigal contributed 10. Ohen erupted for 22 first-half points as the Jersey Blues sped to a 60-40 lead. Bergen is 6-12.

In other men's play, Jamarion Clayton and Lawrence Brodie scored 17 each and Jeremy Watkins added 14 for host OCC (12-6) in its 70-60 loss to Camden (16-3).

Chris Christopher