

Open House

Thurs. Nov. 5 // Lincroft

"New Jersey's #1 Associate Degree College, Brookdale Community College, invites prospective students, their families and friends to visit the Lincroft main campus for the annual Fall Open House" today they write to us. And we're happy to pass it along. Brookdale is quite the triCity asset, in our - and many others - opinion. The event takes place in the Collins Arena from 11:30am to 1:30pm with parking in lots 6, 6a, and 7. Information and a video welcome from Brookdale college president, Dr. Peter F. Burnham is at the *10.29.09

TriCityNews*

Brookdale homepage - www.brookdalecc.edu. Open House highlights will include academic department exhibitions, representatives from student support services, financial aid information, procedures for transferring to a four-year college, student clubs and campus activities displays and assistance completing the Brookdale application procedure. Brookdale students and faculty will be available to answer questions. Tours of the campus will be offered. RSVP's are requested by Friday, October 30th and can be made by calling 732-224-1857.