

Freeholder Board Returns To All Republican Rule

John P. Curley to serve as director for 2012

By John Burton

FREEHOLD - The Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders formally returned to exclusive Republican rule at its annual reorganization meeting, member freeholder board to an exclusively GOP body, with former Spring Lake resident Gary Rich taking the seat formerly held by Mallet. Re-elected incumbent

JAN 13

121

"I will not entertain any new tax increases," and pledged that he would "not remain silent in accepting the status quo," said Freeholder John P. Curley

held last Thursday at the Biotechnology High School, Kosloski Road.

Freeholder John P. Curley will serve as director for 2012.

The defeat of incumbent Democrat Amy Mallet in November returned the five-

Republican Lillian Burry is beginning her third three-year term on the freeholder board. Rounding out the all-Republican lineup was Rosemarie Peters, who was

Continued on Page 4

