

BROOKDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGEBOARD POLICY*2.7000*I. Title of Policy

Fund-Raising

II. Objective of Policy

To define the scope of permissible fund-raising activities at Brookdale Community College and to establish appropriate criteria for same.

III. Authority

N.J. State Statutes – County Colleges 18:64A-12 (General Powers of Boards)

IV. Policy Statement

- A. All fund-raising activities affiliated with Brookdale Community College shall be approved and coordinated through the Office of Planning and Development.
- B. All fund-raising efforts should be consistent with the Mission of the College.
- C. Acceptance of gifts shall not impose upon the College any obligation or condition not within the College's best interest.
- D. All gifts of cash, securities, real estate, or other personal property shall be accepted by the Brookdale Community College Foundation or the Brookdale Community College Alumni Association as determined by the Office of Planning and Development.
- E. Gifts of equipment and/or services will normally be accepted by the College through the Office of Planning and Development.
- F. The Office of Planning and Development shall annually report on all fund-raising efforts to the Board of Trustees.

V. Responsibility for Implementation

President.

Approved: Board of Trustees
6/25/92