

BROOKDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGEBOARD POLICY*6.1000*I. Title of Policy

Admission Policy

II. Objective of Policy

To maintain admissions regulations and procedures that are sufficiently flexible to adjust to the educational needs of the community.

III. Authority

Higher Education Restructuring Act of 1994

IV. Policy Statement

The College shall admit, to the extent of its physical and financial resources, anyone 18 years of age or older, or anyone who is a high school graduate or holder of an equivalency diploma, and individuals not possessing a high school diploma or equivalency diploma who are at least 18 years of age and have not attended high school for at least one year. In addition, high school students eligible for the Fast Start Program may apply for admission to credit programs or credit courses. Admissions priority is given to Monmouth County residents.

Where specific skill deficiencies are identified, the College reserves the right to require applicants to take non-credit developmental courses in reading, language skills, computation or basic algebra.

Should it be necessary to limit enrollment due to insufficient facilities, staff, and/or funds, admission shall be on a first-come first-served basis.

Admission to the College does not imply admission to all programs. Accordingly, admission to specialized programs requiring external clinical experiences or programs bound by contractual regulations may be limited. Also, admission to such specialized programs is subject to additional criteria and restrictions.

Consistent with federal and state guidelines the College will conduct appropriate assessment and evaluation of a student's ability to benefit.

V. Responsibility for Implementation

President.
