BROOKDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
COLLEGE REGULATION

6.3001R

I. Title of Regulation

Demonstrations on the Campus or the College Learning Centers

II. Objective of Regulation

To insure the right of students to demonstrate in reasonable manner and to follow the decision of the courts which support peaceful demonstrations, but at the same time provide means which prohibit disruptions or civil disobedience when they interfere with the normal functioning of the educational process.

III. Authority

Bylaws of the Board of Trustees, Section 1.3034(m)

IV. Regulation Statement

A. Demonstrations which interfere with any program of the College, including those which may take place at the College Learning Centers, will not be permitted.

B. Students or groups of students wishing to organize a demonstration may do so by obtaining approval of the Office of Student Life and Activities.

C. Persons or groups of persons not connected with the College may be prohibited from participating in student demonstrations.

D. Should a demonstration appear to be disruptive as defined above, the President may, on the recommendation of the Dean of Student Development, declare any College Building or area closed to the public by virtue of the fact that the activity therein might be dangerous to the public or the student body at large.

E. Any student or other authorized person in the building or area who is, in fact, disrupting the normal activity of the College by blocking corridors, seizing an office, loud boisterous conduct, or any other activity which constitutes an unlawful interference with the conduct of the College, will be told to cease and desist this activity.

F. If he refuses to do so, then such student, under the Student Conduct Policy, will be summarily suspended and immediate written notice of suspension delivered to him.

G. After a student has been summarily suspended as aforesaid, he will be directed to leave the building or area.

H. The student will be notified of his right to appeal the action taken by the College in accordance with the procedure outlined if the student conduct code procedures:
1. As with other violations of the student conduct code, the first attempt to deal with disruptive acts will rest with the Director of Student Life and Activities on the Lincroft Campus or the Director of the College Learning Centers.

2. If the Director of the Learning Centers or the Director of Student Life and Activities is not able to control the situation, they should contact the Office of the President.

I. In the case of a student who has been summarily suspended and directed to leave but remains, the President or his designated officer will direct the College Police to arrest such student and remove him from the building or the area.

V. Responsibility for Implementation
