

REQUEST FOR UNSUBSIDIZED LOAN DEPENDENT STATUS REVIEW 2018-2019

Student Name _____ Student ID# _____

If you are considered a dependent student according to the financial aid definition, your aid eligibility is determined by using parent income and asset information in addition to your information. Financial aid regulations state that dependent students are required by law to provide parental information and signatures to be considered for financial aid.

If your parent has ended providing parental financial support and refuses to complete the parental sections of the FAFSA, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan. Support is defined as cash support, payment by the parent of educational costs, health insurance benefits, other financial obligations you have incurred, and/or non cash support such as room and board.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

1. You must submit a dated and signed letter from a parent specifically stating that the parent(s)
 - Has stopped providing financial support to you (including the date when the financial support stopped)
 - Will not provide financial support in the future
 - Refuses to complete the parental section of a FAFSA

2. If you are unable to provide a letter from you parent(s) you must obtain documentation from a third party (e.g., teacher, counselor, clergy) describing your relationship with your parents and their refusal to provide parental support and completion of the FAFSA.

3. Please state below, how have you been self-supporting? When did you start meeting your expenses without parental support?
