CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Employment of substance abuse and behavioral disorder counselors is projected to grow 31 percent from 2012 to 2022, much faster than the average for all occupations. Growth is expected as addiction and mental health counseling services are increasingly covered by insurance policies.

Brookdale Community College is an approved education provider offering degree credits. Students who complete the following courses towards the Addiction Studies A.S., either as part of the degree or separately, will have fulfilled the educational requirements of the CADC credential awarded by the State of New Jersey. HUMAN SERVICES A.S. DEGREE IN ADDICTION STUDIES

HUMAN SERVICES ADDICTION STUDIES A.S.

The Human Services A.S. Addiction Studies Option prepares students to transfer to a Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) or other closely related program while earning addiction certification credits simultaneously. Human Services is a creative, innovative field for persons who work with, and give support to, other human beings who are experiencing problems with addiction. The courses provide a comprehensive approach to addiction studies. In addition to time spent in the classroom, students spend 285 hours in hospitals, mental health centers, social service agencies, substance-abuse counseling sites and other facilities.

Graduates of this program will be able to:

- Serve Human Services clients or carry out other supportive human service agency functions
- Explain the historical and philosophical foundation of Human Services
- Identify human systems, discuss their interaction, and recognize the conditions that promote or limit optimal human functioning
- Analyze service problems, select appropriate strategies, services, or interventions, and evaluate outcomes
- Apply human service ethics, values, and attitudes in personal, educational, and professional settings with an understanding of cultural/ethnic diversity
- Evaluate their own values, personalities, reaction patterns, interpersonal styles, and limitations
- Apply interventions with individual clients and therapeutic groups as it relates to drug and alcohol addictions
