Events the Week of March 10th

WEEK OF MONDAY, MARCH 10	Math Lab Week! Check out events in the Math Lab! Look at the online events calendar for more info.
MONDAY, MARCH 10	Student Nurses Association: Medical Reserve Corps Speaker 12:00pm / MAS 100 Through collaboration with departments of health, emergency management, police, first responders, volunteers from all areas, and community organizations, the MRC is building awareness for public health initiatives such as disease prevention as well as better preparing for, responding to, and recovering from emergencies. The MRC welcomes and benefits from the time and contribution of medical and non-medical volunteers in strengthening public health, emergency response, and community resilience. Our presenter, Beth Hessek, is the Medical Reserve Corps volunteer coordinator for the Monmouth County Health Department. Her background before joining MRC was in public education.
TUESDAY, MARCH 11	Gamers Club: Dine & Play 11:30am / SLC Navesink III Join the Gamers Club for their Dine and Play event! This event will have multiple games being played at different stations throughout the room. SAGE: Monthly Meeting

11:30am / LAH 210

Are you 55 years of age or older and a student – present or former – at Brookdale Community College? You and your guests are welcome to join SAGE (Senior Adults Growing Educationally). We meet monthly on campus for socialization and a presentation. The free event this month will feature Brookdale employee Kevin Burkitt sharing his Sandy photography.

Lauren Berger: The Intern Queen

11:45am / SLC Navesink Rooms

Lauren Berger is a best-selling author and the Founder & CEO of Intern Queen Inc., an online internship destination that helps students find and apply for internships while also educating them on how to make the most of their experiences. Berger participated in 15 internships during her four years of college, and subsequently adopted the title "Intern Queen" before launching her business of the same name. Her site, InternQueen.com, reaches nearly 100,000 different students, parents, and employers each month.

Passport Cinema: The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel

Dinner: 5:15pm / Culinary Education Center, Asbury Park, NJ

Film: 7:30pm / The Showroom in Asbury Park

British retirees travel to India to take up residence in what they believe is a newly restored hotel. Less luxurious than advertised, the Marigold nevertheless slowly begins to charm in unexpected ways. Post-film discussion provided by Assistant Prof. Alex Idavoy. Call 732-988-3299 for dinner reservations.

2014 Gold Star Awards

Every year, Student Life & Activities and the Student Life Board honor those who have contributed to the success of Student Life at Brookdale Community College. Students, faculty, staff, administrators and police are eligible to receive an award. Do you know of someone who has been an asset to the outside-of-the-classroom world here at Brookdale? Nominate them! Visit www.brookdalecc.edu/studentlife and click on "Gold Star Awards" to see the different categories and download the nomination form.

Environmental Club Recycling Fundraiser

From now until the end of April the Brookdale Environmental Club is holding a recycling fundraiser through the Funding Factory. Help them raise funds to donate to Clean Ocean Action by donating old cell phones, ink cartridges, lap tops, small electronics, etc. You will see collection bins and boxes around the Lincroft, Freehold and Hazlet campuses. This project takes electronics and other items out of landfills and helps a great cause. To learn how you can help e-mail bcc.gogreen@gmail.com
