

BROOKDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGE COLLEGE REGULATION

6.3000R Student Conduct Code and Academic Integrity Code

I. Title of Regulation

Student Conduct Code and Academic Integrity Code

II. Objective of Regulation

To provide a precise set of expectations for student behavior and the maintenance of academic integrity for the College community.

III. Authority

Bylaws of the Board of Trustees, 1.3034(m)

IV. Academic Integrity Code Regulation Statement

A. Definition

For the purpose of this code, a student is defined as one who is enrolled at the College at the time of the alleged violation.

A student has an obligation to exhibit honesty and high ethical standards in carrying out academic assignments.

B. Purpose and Scope of the Academic Integrity Code

1. The following statements are adopted for the purpose of providing a set of expectations and at the same time offering the assurance that all students will be accorded fair and objective treatment when violations occur.

2. This code will apply to students engaging in academic activities of any kind or interfering with academic activities of any kind associated with Brookdale Community College.

3. When a student is convicted of a violation of one or more of the laws in the community, state, or nation, the College will not request special consideration for that individual because of his/her status as a student. The College will cooperate fully, however, with law enforcement agencies and with other agencies in any appropriate program for the rehabilitation of the student.

C. Student Obligations/Academic Violations

Without limiting the application of the code, a student may be found to have violated this obligation if he/she:

1. Presents for evaluation the ideas, representations, or words of another person or persons, without customary and proper acknowledgment of sources. (Students should consult course syllabus and/or specified writing handbook.)
2. Submits the work of another person in a manner that represents the work as one's own.
3. Knowingly permits one's work to be submitted by another person without the instructor's authorization.
4. Refers to materials or sources, or employs devices not authorized by the instructor during an academic evaluation.
5. Receives or gives assistance during an academic examination from or to another person in a manner not authorized by the instructor.
6. Discusses in any manner the content of an academic examination with another person in a manner not authorized by the instructor.
7. Possesses, buys, sells, obtains, or uses a copy of any material intended to be used as an instrument of academic evaluation from another person in a manner not authorized by the instructor.
8. Acts as a substitute for any person in any academic evaluation process.
9. Utilizes a substitute in any academic evaluation procedure.
10. Practices any form of deceit in an academic evaluation proceeding.
11. Depends on the aid of others in a manner expressly prohibited by the instructor in the research, creation, writing, performance, or publication of work to be submitted for academic credit or evaluation.
12. Provides aid to another person, knowing such aid is expressly prohibited by the instructor in the research, creation, writing, performance, or publication of work to be submitted for academic credit or evaluation.
13. Attempts to influence or change one's academic evaluation or record inappropriately.

D. Process and Discipline Procedures

The College ensures every individual has the right to a fair and equal process in academic disciplinary matters. These requirements are:

1. When an alleged violation of the academic integrity code occurs, a violation report is generated by staff or faculty observing the incident.

a. If generated by staff, form then is sent to course faculty. Student is notified by staff that form will be written and sent to faculty.

b. If generated by faculty, within two weeks, the faculty member will: investigate the incident, giving student the opportunity to discuss the alleged violation with the course faculty and advise the student of the charges against him/her, make a determination about the incident and notify the student as soon as possible but not later than two weeks of that determination. The faculty has the authority to impose the following sanctions:

b.1 No credit for assignments.

b.2 No credit for tests.

b.3 Retest and/or assign work to be done over again.

b.4 Failing grade in course.

b.5 Written Reprimand: written warning placed in student's file within Academic Affairs Office for having engaged in misconduct.

b.6 Other as determined by faculty or department policy.

The outcome will be documented on the violation form. The student will be sent a copy of the form and the Academic Integrity Code. A copy of the form will also be sent to the Vice President for Learning.

2. The student will have two weeks from the date of being notified of the violation to decide whether to appeal the alleged violations or waive the right to an appeal and accept the sanctions imposed. The student will notify the faculty and Vice President for Learning of her/his decision to appeal in writing.

3. If the student chooses to appeal, the Vice President for Learning will make a determination as to the merit of the appeal and will convene the Academic Integrity Committee if necessary. Written notification of the time, place and date of the hearing will be sent to all concerned parties.

This committee will be composed of two students, two faculty members, and the Vice President for Learning, who will act as a tie-breaking member. A designated faculty/staff member will assume the role of Vice President for Learning if there exists a specific conflict of interest for the Vice President for Learning in a pending case.

4. At the meeting of the Academic Integrity Appeal, the student and the faculty/staff member will have the right to produce witnesses on her/his behalf, to question all witnesses, and to bring counsel of her/his own choosing. Counsel will be allowed to advise the student or students charged, but not speak at the hearing. Any other Brookdale students, faculty, and staff may attend only through invitation by the Vice President for Learning. Within two weeks after the hearing, the student and faculty will be informed in writing of the Committee's determination of academic code violation. If the committee finds that a violation of the academic code did occur, the outcome determined by the faculty will be upheld. If the committee finds in favor of the appeal, no sanctions will be imposed. All records of violations of the academic integrity code will be maintained by the Office of the Vice President for Learning and will be destroyed upon the student's graduation or three years from the date of the Committee's recommendation, whichever comes first.

E. Multiple Violations

1. When more than one documented violation has occurred by the same student, the Vice President for Learning will convene the Academic Integrity Committee. The student will be notified of the charges, the date of the meeting and will receive a copy of the academic integrity code.

a. The Vice President for Learning has the responsibility to present all charges against the student. The student will have the same rights to present her/his case as in Process and Discipline Procedures, step 4.

b. Upon the conclusion of this hearing and after deliberation, the Academic Integrity Committee will make a recommendation to the Vice President for Learning based on the preponderance of evidence presented in the hearing verbally or in writing

c. Additional possible sanctions are:

c.1 Temporary loss of specified College rights and privileges until conditions are met.

c.2 Suspension may be applied for a given period of time and the term is specified to the student. All suspension actions will be noted in the student's record.*

c.3 Expulsion: results in the severance of a student from the College.*

c.4 Denial or revocation of degree.*

* Any suspension, expulsion, denial or revocation will be at all times subject to the approval of the President of the College.

d. The Vice President for Learning will notify the student in writing within one week of the Committee's decision.

e. In cases where the Academic Integrity Committee finds in favor of the student, no sanctions will be imposed.

f. Documentation of the hearing and recommendations will be maintained by the Office of the Vice President for Learning and will be destroyed upon the student's graduation or three years from the date of the Committee's recommendation, whichever comes first.

2. Presidential Power: Any suspension or any expulsion or denial or revocation of degree imposed will be at all times subject to the approval of the President of the College. Nothing in this regulation will be deemed to limit the final authority of the President of the College in all matters relating to violations of the Student Conduct and Academic Integrity Code and the imposition of discipline therefore, whether by way of probation, suspension, or expulsion.

V. Student Conduct Code

A. Student Rights and Responsibilities

The College places an emphasis upon certain core values and personal freedoms which are essential to its nature, mission and purpose as an academic community and institution of higher learning. Members of the College community are entitled to engage in the teaching and learning process undisturbed by violence, harassment, intimidation and bullying. The ability to do so is essential to the orderly pursuit of learning and the work of all members of the College community. Students and student organizations may examine and discuss questions of interest to them and may express opinions publicly and privately. They may support causes by orderly means which do not disrupt the regular and essential operations of the College.

It is the responsibility of all students of the College to adhere to the letter and spirit of this statement of student rights and responsibilities, all College policies, rules and regulations and local, state and federal laws. Students shall not violate or attempt to violate any College policy, rule or regulation or any local, state or federal law. It is the responsibility of all students of the College to contribute to an educational atmosphere in which violations of personal rights and freedoms will not be tolerated.

B. Definition of Student

For the purpose of this Student Code of Conduct, a student is defined as a person who is currently enrolled or registered as a credit student at the College at the time of the incident as to which the person has been charged with violation of this Student Code of Conduct. If a person is not enrolled or registered at the time of an incident in which he/she is involved which may constitute a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, that person and the referenced alleged misconduct may become subject to the Student Code of Conduct upon the person's enrollment or reenrollment at the College.

C. Purpose and Scope of the Student Code of Conduct

1. This Student Code of Conduct is adopted for the purpose of providing a precise set of expectations to students and, at the same time, offering the assurance that all students will be accorded fair and reasonable treatment in matters involving alleged or determined violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

2. The Student Code of Conduct will apply to any student, student organization or athletic team engaging in activities on the College campus, or at any of the College's off-campus centers and/or satellite campuses (referenced as "College Premises" in this Student Code of Conduct). The College Premises includes the Lincroft campus and any regional or other locations at which the College maintains an office and conducts activities. The Student Code of Conduct also applies to any student, student organization or athletic team sponsoring any approved off-campus function or otherwise representing the College in an off-campus setting. Additionally, the College can take action regarding off-campus incidents when such violation(s) adversely affect(s) the College.

3. When a student is convicted of a violation of local, state or federal law, the College will not request special consideration for that person because of his/her status as a student. However, the College will cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies and with other agencies in any appropriate program for the rehabilitation of the student to the extent permitted by law and as determined to be in the best interest of the student and the College community.

D. Standards of Conduct

1. Student conduct which interferes with the philosophical platform of the College is not acceptable.

2. Any person who enrolls at the College can expect that the faculty and administration will exercise the authority of the College to regulate student conduct whenever the educational process, the health and welfare of the student body as a whole, and/or the property of the College are judged to be jeopardized by the action of any student or group of students.

3. Harassment, intimidation and bullying of any person are prohibited. Harassment, intimidation or bullying includes any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act or any electronic communication, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents that is reasonably perceived as being motivated by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or by another distinguishing characteristic that takes place on College Premises or at any function sponsored by the College, that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the College or the rights of other students and that:

a. a reasonable person will know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property; or

b. has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or

c. Creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student's education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

4. Domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking are prohibited by College Policy 2.1001 entitled "Preventing and Responding to Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking." Allegations of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking by any student of the College shall be addressed in accordance with College Regulation 6.3003R entitled “Procedures for Preventing and Responding to Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking Involving Students.”

5. Unattended Minors

- a. Minors under the age of 18 are not allowed on Brookdale Community College premises unless under the immediate supervision of an adult or for legitimate college business.
- b. Minors are never to be left unsupervised and are prohibited from being left unattended at all Brookdale locations, including but not limited to buildings, grounds, and parking lots.
- c. Parents, guardians, and/or audit registered students are required to accompany minors and will be held responsible for their guests’ behavior in accordance with College policies.
- d. On an emergency basis only, it is the prerogative of the faculty to permit minors of enrolled student’s admission to regular classes. However, admission of minors to all laboratory settings is prohibited for safety reasons.

E. Process and Disciplinary Procedures

It has been recognized that due process in higher education disciplinary matters need not parallel the requirements of due process in a court of law. The College will attempt to handle disciplinary matters privately, informally and expeditiously before resorting to formalized procedures or the referral to outside agencies. However, the College will ensure that the basic protections of due process will be implemented when students of the College are charged with violating this Student Code of Conduct.

F. These protections afforded every student and related processes are:

1. Any student, faculty or staff member may file a complaint alleging a violation of this Student Code of Conduct. Any such complaint shall be addressed consistent with the requirements of this Student Code of Conduct, except as noted in paragraph “2” immediately following this paragraph “1.”
2. Any student, faculty or staff member may file a complaint alleging domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking by any student of the College, which complaint shall be addressed in accordance with College Regulation 6.3003R – “Procedures for Preventing and Responding to Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking Involving Students.”
3. Written notification of the charge(s) against a student and possible penalties within a reasonable time period.
4. The opportunity to have a discussion with the College’s designated Student Conduct Officer to clarify the evidence and/or view of an incident before an initial determination is made by the Student Conduct Officer or designee.

5. The opportunity to have a hearing before the Student Conduct Board with respect to major offenses as defined in this Student Code of Conduct or to waive the right to a hearing and accept the sanctions and/or penalties imposed by the Student Conduct Officer or other authority of the College.
6. Written notification of the time, place and date of a hearing at least three (3) business days in advance of the hearing.
7. The opportunity to present evidence and witnesses.
8. Written notification of the findings of the Student Conduct Board, which findings shall be based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented verbally and/or in writing.
9. Written notification of the sanctions and/or penalties to be imposed.
10. Written notification of the appeals process.

G. Violations

The acts identified below, when committed by any student and/or student organization, shall be considered violations of the Student Code of Conduct. These violations may be determined to be minor or major offenses at the discretion of the Student Conduct Officer or designee. The listing of acts constituting violations of this Student Code of Conduct set forth below is not intended to be an exhaustive or limited definition of what the College deems to be violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The listing is intended to provide students with guidance. The determination as to an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct will be left to the sole discretion of the College and will be made on a case-by-case basis.

1. Engagement in behavior which in any way interferes with, disrupts and/or obstructs the teaching and learning process, including without limitation: research, administration, implementation of discipline procedures or other College authorized activities. 36. Any action which could constitute violation of existing local, state or federal law on College Premises or off-campus when such violation adversely affects the College.

H. Sanctions and Penalties

The sanctions and penalties set forth below may be applied either singularly or in any combination as appropriate to the circumstances of each case.

1. Verbal Reprimand: Verbal admonition against further violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
2. Written Reprimand: Written warning placed in a student's file for having violated the Student Code of Conduct.
3. Restitution: The obligation to replace or pay for property damaged to compensate for losses incurred or to provide a campus service as a result of a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
4. Conditional Probation: Temporary loss of College rights and privileges until specified conditions are met, such as submission of letters of apology and/or doctor's releases, etc.
5. Disciplinary Probation: Loss of participation in College-related activities for a specified period of time. Disciplinary Probation may also entail the satisfaction of certain enumerated conditions in order for a student to be removed from probation.
6. Fine: Monetary sum imposed as a penalty for an offense.
7. Community Service: Assigned community service work to fit a particular violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
8. Suspension: Exclusion from all or specified classes and other College-related activities for a specified period of time.
9. Expulsion: Permanent dismissal from classes and College-related activities.
10. Summary (Temporary) Suspension: Exclusion from all or specified classes and other College-related activities until due process procedures are completed. This sanction may be imposed by the Vice President for Student Success in the following instances:
 - a. A threat of safety to the student or College community;
 - b. A severe disruption of College activities; or
 - c. If a student refuses to respond to a summons to appear before the College's designated Student Conduct Officer or his/her designee.

I. Enforcement

1. Initial Action. Any individual student, group of students and/or student organization violating this Student Code of Conduct will be referred to the College's designated Student Conduct Officer or designee for disciplinary measures in accordance with the provisions of this Code of Student Conduct.

2. Minor offenses. In the case of all offenses deemed by the College's designated Student Conduct Officer or designee not to constitute acts which would result in suspension or expulsion of the student(s), the Student Conduct Officer may determine disciplinary actions as stated in paragraphs "1" through "7" of the Sanctions and Penalties section of this Code of Student Conduct, above. These offenses shall be deemed "minor offenses." The Student Conduct Officer will investigate allegations of an incident violating this Student Code of Conduct, notify the student of the allegations regarding the incident and advise the student of the charges against him/her; hear the student's comments about the incident, when possible; make a determination about whether or not, if true, the allegations constitute a minor offense and, if so, the penalty or sanction to be imposed; notify the student of that determination within a reasonable period of time and notify the student of the appeal procedures when appropriate. Any student may appeal a determination with respect to a minor offense as stated in paragraph "1" of the Appeals Section of this Student Code of Conduct, below.

3. Major Offenses. In any case in which the violation is of such a nature that, in the opinion of the College's designated Student Conduct Officer, suspension or expulsion from the College could be imposed, the Student Conduct Officer shall bring the matter before the Student Conduct Board in accordance with the following procedures:

a. The Student Conduct Board will be convened to hear all cases which could result in suspension or expulsion. The Student Conduct Board will be composed of two (2) students and one (1) representative of the College faculty and staff. A training program for potential Student Conduct Board members will be held each Fall Term.

b. In such cases, the Student Conduct Officer or his/her designee, acting as a non-voting member of the Student Conduct Board, will arrange with the student charged with violation of the Student Code of Conduct the time and place of the hearing before the Student Conduct Board, which said notice will advise the student of the charges against him/her; the student's right to question witnesses against him/her; the student's right to produce witnesses on his/her behalf; and the student's right to select counsel of his/her own choosing. Counsel will be allowed to advise the student or students charged with violation of the Student Code of Conduct, but will not be permitted to speak and/or examine witnesses at the hearing. Other College students, faculty and staff may attend the hearing only upon the invitation of the Student Conduct Officer or if they are presented as witnesses by the student whose conduct is the subject of the hearing. The Student Conduct Board will be convened to consider the alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct as soon as possible in proximity to the time of the alleged incident.

c. The Student Conduct Officer or his/her designee will present all charges against the student at the hearing before the Student Conduct Board.

d. The Vice President for Student Success or the College Officer of the Day will assume the role of the Student Conduct Officer as stated in this Student Code of Conduct if there exists a specific conflict of interest for the Student Conduct Officer in any pending case.

e. At the hearing, the Student Conduct Board will hear the charges against the student and hear the statements of witnesses for and against the student and may question the witnesses. The Student Conduct Board will conduct a hearing about alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct by more than one (1) student in the same case and/or pertaining to the same incident at one hearing.

f. Upon the conclusion of the hearing and after deliberation, the Student Conduct Board will render its decision based upon the preponderance of evidence presented at the hearing, both in writing and through verbal testimony.

g. The Student Conduct Officer will notify the student charged of the decision of the Student Conduct Board within 24 hours of receiving the decision of the Student Conduct Board.

h. A taped or digitally recorded record of all Student Conduct Board hearings shall be made. The record shall be retained by the College in accordance with College policy and regulation and relevant federal and state law.

i. Violations determined to have occurred and penalties imposed may be publicized in the College newspaper without mention of or alluding to the names of the persons involved in the incident resulting in a violation of this Student Code of Conduct.

J. Appeals

1. Any student or faculty or staff member may appeal a decision of the Student Conduct Officer or Student Conduct Board by notice in writing filed with the Vice President for Student Success, within five (5) working days after notice of the decision.

2. The Vice President for Student Success, upon the filing of such appeal, will review the proceeding in the matter and: (a) affirm the decision of the Student Conduct Board; (b) revise the decision of the Student Conduct Board; or (c) convene an appeal committee.

3. In the event the Vice President for Student Success affirms the decision of the Student Conduct Board, the Vice President for Student Success will advise the student in writing within three (3) working days of the decision.

4. In the event the Vice President for Student Success on any appeal filed with him/her determines to convene an appeal committee, the following procedure will be followed:

a. The Vice President for Student Success will appoint an appeal committee consisting of two (2) students and one (1) representative of the College faculty and staff.

b. The Vice President for Student Success will convene such appeal committee, give notice to the student appellant of the time and place of the meeting of the appeal committee to hear the appeal, and will preside over the appeal hearing.

c. The appeal committee, after hearing the matter, may take any of the following actions:

(1) Affirm the decision of the Student Conduct Board;

(2) Revise decision of the Student Conduct Board; or

(3) Render a new decision.

d. The Vice President for Student Success will advise the student in writing of the decision of the appeal committee within one (1) working day of the appeal committee's rendering of its decision.

K. Suspension

Suspension of a student may be imposed when the Student Conduct Board has determined that a Major Offense has occurred or when the conditions of disciplinary probation are disregarded. Suspension is imposed only on the basis of the recommendation of the Student Conduct Board and with the approval of the Vice President for Student Success. Suspension is applied for a given period of time, and the term is specified to the student.

A student suspended from the College forfeits all rights and privileges of a student, including participation in all College-related or College-sponsored functions. All suspension actions will be noted in the student's College record.

Any student may be summarily suspended by the Vice President for Student Success or the College Officer of the Day for a period not to exceed ten (10) College working days pending a hearing before the Student Conduct Board.

In the event of any appeal of the Student Conduct Board decision, the Vice President for Student Success may suspend the student or continue any previous suspension pending the disposition of the appeal.

L. Expulsion

Expulsion of a student from the College may be imposed in situations in which Major Offenses of this Student Code of Conduct have occurred or when a series of suspensions have been issued to a student without sufficient improvement in the student's conduct. Expulsion may be recommended to the College President by the Vice President for Student Success.

M. Authority of the College President

Any expulsion imposed on a student for violation of this Student Code of Conduct at all times will be subject to the approval of the President of the College. Nothing in this Student Code of Conduct will be deemed to limit the final authority of the President of the College in all matters relating to violations of this Student Code of Conduct and the imposition of the aforementioned sanctions and/or penalties.
