ATTENDANCE AND LATENESS POLICY:

Attendance, homework and class participation are required. CLASS ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY IF YOU WANT TO PASS THIS CLASS. You are graded on your attendance and class participation. Additionally, you only get half attendance credit for lateness or leaving early. If late see me at the end of class or at break so I may mark you present/late, or you will not receive credit for attending the session. Excessive lateness does not excuse the student or allow for extensions on assignments.

CLASSROOM GRADING: You will be working at an individual pace to a certain extent. Grading requires me to compare expectations individually rather than in comparison to each other because of the difference in skill level that you may have.

ASSIGNMENTS: Absences do not excuse the handing in of assignments due. This type of work cannot be e-mailed and often requires class presentation for which you must be present.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

All electronic devices are expected to be turned off during class and will not be used in the classroom. There is no need for a laptop to be used during this class. No iPads, no phone use, no texting. If the lecture and the class are distracted by your phone use or texting, you will be asked to leave and will receive a "0" for attendance that session.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES:

Cheating:

If any student utilizes notes, receives assistance in any way or is cheating on an exam or assignment, the student will receive a "0" grade for that exam or assignment. The student will also forfeit the opportunity to retest on that exam or assignment. Expressed in simple and absolute terms, if you cheat in any way, you will not receive credit for that exam or assignment

INC As per College Grading System Regulation 5.0013R

An Incomplete (INC) may be assigned at the discretion of the course faculty for students who have extraordinary circumstances of documented hardship or emergency. These are students who have been actively participating throughout the term and have completed significant portion of the course in a satisfactory manner but approach the end of the term without completing all assignments. The following process should be followed:

- The student contacts the faculty with the appropriate documentation
- The incomplete contract is completed by the faculty and must be signed by both the faculty and the student.
- Students will be notified by email to check their grades and to speak to their counselor about the impact of the incomplete.
- All course work should be completed by the twenty-first day after the end of the current semester or term, exclusive of official college closings.
- When a student completes the work satisfactorily, faculty will submit a Change of Grade form.
- If work is not completed satisfactorily, the INC will be changed to an F by the registrar. Students will be notified by email.
- For the purpose of calculating academic standing, the INC will be treated as an F.
