

The James V. Palumbo, Jr. Memorial Scholarship

Jim Palumbo worked at Brookdale Community College for nearly 30 years, serving as Dean of Enrollment Development and Student Affairs for the majority of his career and retiring as Interim Executive Vice President of Educational Services in 2011. Family, friends and colleagues established this scholarship in recognition of Jim's longtime service to the College and his unwavering advocacy and support for students.

The recipient must have completed a minimum of 24 credits, have a GPA of 3.0 or better, have financial need and a student athlete who has completed two years of eligibility. Students meeting the scholarship criteria are encouraged to apply. A $500 scholarship will be awarded for fall 2017. The scholarship funds will be credited to the recipient's Brookdale account. The selected student is requested to attend the annual Brookdale Scholarship Recognition Ceremony in March 2018.
