

Harry V. Weber Endowed Memorial Scholarship

Background:

The Brookdale Community College Alumni Association is honored to announce the Harry V. Weber, Jr. Endowed Memorial Scholarship Fund. This Endowed Scholarship Fund was made possible by the generous gift of Mr. Weber in his will. Mr. Weber graduated from Brookdale Community College in 1980. He was a member of the Brookdale Community College Alumni Association and served on the Board of Directors. His will specifically stated that the monies be used solely for scholarships.

The BCC Alumni Association passed a resolution in October 2001 granting approval for the creation of this endowed scholarship fund to provide scholarships to Brookdale students in perpetuity.

Eligibility:

Four $500 scholarships are available to current Brookdale Community College Students. Students enrolled in nursing and political science will be given preference, although students enrolled in other programs of study are eligible. These non-renewable scholarships will be applied to the students' tuition through the Brookdale Financial Aid Office.
