

Student Club Award Recipients

Dreamers+

Monica Urena* (President), Daysi Arevalo* (Vice President), Jose Montealegue (Treasurer), Brenda Codallos (Secretary)

International Student Association

Sarah Olmo* (President), Mayte Javier* (Vice President), Fransico Freire (Treasurer), Brenda Martell (Secretary)

Students for Global Citizenship

Varsha Medidi* (President), Emily Abrecht (Vice President), Diana Tawiah (Board Member)

The TIN Project Team

Marina Brito*, Gregory Dube*, Isabelle Blanc, Andre Carvalho, Jose Contero, Erika Etkine, Ikrom Ibrahim, Matthew Kessig, Lana Leonard, Vincent Pino, Miguel Plaza, Russel Rosal, Austin Santana-Simmons

* speaking

Global Citizenship Project Awards Ceremony

GCP 2017-2019 Theme Immigrants and Refugees

Beginning in Fall 2017, Brookdale will embrace the GCP theme voted on by faculty. Over the next two years, we hope to engage the college community in curricular and co-curricular programming related to our selected theme.

For more information about GCP, please email Kelsey Maki (kmaki@brookdalecc.edu)

Tuesday, May 2nd, 2017
7:00 p.m.

Brookdale Community College
765 Newman Springs Road
Lincroft, NJ
Student Life Center

The awards ceremony is made possible with support from
The International Education Center
Brookdale Student Life and Activities

Brookdale Community College

Global Citizenship Awards 2017

Welcome Message

Dr. Janice Thomas
Director of the International Education Center

Opening Remarks

Dr. Maureen Murphy
President of Brookdale Community College

Award Presentations

Professor Kelsey Maki
Faculty Liaison to the International Education Center

Outstanding Educator Award

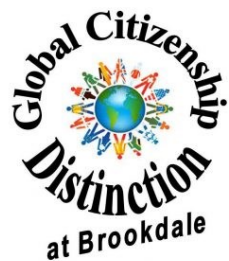

Professor Ashley Zampogna-Krug, History

Outstanding Service Award

Professor Sheri Stanford, Elaine Baran Scholarship Committee

Global Citizenship Distinction

Gaetano Jones, Brookdale Class of 2017

Brookdale students who have demonstrated exceptional engagement in global issues during their time at the College may be eligible, upon graduation, for Global Citizenship Distinction. To receive this honor, students must integrate global education into their academic pursuits while simultaneously engaging in globally focused co-curricular activities, all of which make for a rich and long-lasting educational experience.

For more information, please contact the GCD Initiative coordinator Dr. Terry Konn (tkonn@brookdalecc.edu) or visit us online: www.brookdalecc.edu/international/global-distinction/

Student Curricular Award Recipients

Selected by Professor Ashley Zampogna-Krug, History

Caterina Azzarello, Infanticide: A Patriarchal Regression
Sarah Olmo, Trinidadians Immigrants in the US

Selected by Professor Thomas Vorbach, Business

Meredith Butler, Causes of Poverty
Manuella Casseus, Global Communication
Khadija Elmaki, Female Genital Mutilation

Selected by Professor Daijuan Gao, Psychology

Molly Heaney, A Journey to Gender Equality

Selected by Professor Elaine Olaoye, Psychology

Ariana Gayla, Attribution Errors and Global Awareness
Ronald Giodarno, Global Awareness and Effective Communication

Selected by Professor Raj Wesley, Psychology

Angelica Mejia, Infant Attachment and Child Development
Chelsy Rey and Xiaoyan Weng, The Effects of Family Leave Policies on Early Child Development

Selected by Professor Barbara Baron, Speech Communication

Erin Cotterell, Hunger and Malnutrition in the Central African Republic
James Seeland, Gaming Culture in South Korea

Selected by Professor Barbara Barrella, Reading

Renato Giordani, When the Emperor was Divine
Kahalamapuana Wilson, Japanese Internment Camps in Hawai'i During WW II

Selected by Professor Jim Cody, English

Dana Geiger, HIV Stigmas

Selected by Professor Donna Pope, English

Samantha Haroun, The Benefits of Studying Abroad
Antanas Tulekis, Studying Abroad
Martha Trujillo, Studying Abroad

Selected by Professor Kelsey Maki, English

Zhengfeng Liang, Greening Vegetation Fights the Dark Air in China
Rajesh Lingenahalli, Patriarchy and Mental Illness in India
Barrett Teachworth, HIV Prevention: From Global to Local