

Neurodiversity club Constitution

Article I: Neurodiversity club

Article II: The goal of the Neurodiversity club is for neurodivergent students on campus to connect socialize and make friendships with other neurodiverse and all Brookdale students.

Article III: Full membership is available to Brookdale Community College students regardless of race, color, gender, Non-students may be guests but do not have membership rights or responsibilities.

Article IV:

Section 1: Executive Board members must be currently enrolled in a minimum of six college credits (not audit status) and have an acceptable ratio of credits attempted to credits earned as defined by the college catalog

Section 2: Elections will take place at the end of the spring semester for the following fall semester.

Section 3:

The presidents role is to run club meetings and activities and make key discissions however the key decisions will be made by the group.

The vice presidents role is to assist the president in meetings come up with activities. The

Vice President heads special committees and substitutes for the President when necessary

Section 4: if a executive board member steps down the president will then handpick a person to fill that role to ensure that there are 2 board members

The

Article V: meetings will take place at least 1 time per month during collage hour

Article VI: the average meeting sizes will be 51% or more of active students

Article: VII: Decisions on parliamentary procedure should be made by the organization or follow the latest edition of

Robert's Rules of Order

Article VIII: All organization funds must be kept in a special account assigned by the ASBCC and the Office of Student Life & Activities. Use of funds is governed by the ASBCC Finance Committee Guidelines. Authorized check disbursement signatures will be kept on file with the ASBCC Treasurer and updated as necessary. Before a transaction is completed all financial decisions must be approved by the student life office and the student life board.

Article IX: The advisor must be a regular College employee, with duties defined in the Role of the Brookdale Club & Organization Advisor. Advisors can participate in all organization activities, with their roles beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30 of the following year.

Article X: The organization must abide by all applicable College rules and regulations, as found in the Brookdale Community College Catalog, The Student Handbook, and the general regulations provided by the Board of Trustees, the State of New Jersey, and the Federal Government. If a parent organization rule conflicts with ASBCC rules, guidelines, or policies, the ASBCC rules take precedence unless an exception is made by the ASBCC and the Office of Student Life & Activities. If a rule conflicts with Brookdale Community College regulations or policies, the College regulations or policies take precedence.

Article XII: "This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the membership, provided the amendment was submitted in writing at a previous regular meeting, and notice of the proposed amendment was given to all members at least one week before the meeting. All amendments must be approved by the Student Life Board and Director of Student Life & Activities, following the recognition procedure, before becoming effective.