

Student Service Awards

Emily Abrecht, Service Learning in Ghana

Frederick Church, EOF and Study Abroad

Jack Linkin, Collage: Journal of Art & Literature

Student Club Awards

Dreamers+

Daysi Arevalo, Brenda Codallos, Javier Veliz

International Student Association

Raza Ali, Varsha Medidi, Brenda Onyango

The TIN Project Team

Emily Briaguez-Agurto, Gregory Dube, Erika Etkine, and Brie Mueller

Women in Learning and Leadership (WILL)

Janai Freer, Kayla Morrissey, Olivia Santarsiero, Chelsea Shafto, Megan Sullivan

GCP 2018-2019 Theme

Immigrants and Refugees

During the next academic year, Brookdale will continue to explore the GCP theme of “Immigrants and Refugees” through co-curricular programming and a Global Read. If you would like to submit your immigration story (or that of your relatives) for potential publication in the text to be used for Brookdale’s Global Read, please send your writing (or questions about the project) to

English professors Donna Pope and Kelsey Maki:

dpope@brookdalecc.edu and kmaki@brookdalecc.edu

Global Citizenship Project Awards Ceremony

April 25th, 2018

7:00 p.m.

Brookdale Community College
765 Newman Springs Road
Lincroft, NJ
Student Life Center

Brookdale Community College

The awards ceremony is made possible with support from
The International Education Center and Brookdale Student Life and Activities

Lifetime Contribution Awards

Carl Calendar, Dean of Humanities Institute
Elaine Olaoye, Professor of Psychology

Outstanding Engagement Award

Lauren Brutsman, Director of Student Life & Activities

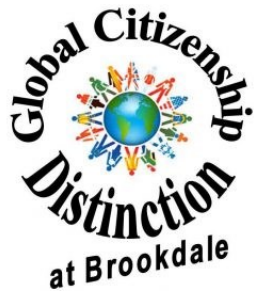

Outstanding Curricular Contribution

The Reading Department

Barbara Barrella, Brooke Batchler, Joanna Kotsis, Nicolette Nicola, Jennifer Salvo, and Tiffany Wojcicki

Global Citizenship Distinction

*Emily Abrecht
Victoria Cattelona
Yasin Celik*

Brookdale students who have demonstrated exceptional engagement in global issues during their time at the College may be eligible, upon graduation, for Global Citizenship Distinction. To receive this honor, students must integrate global education into their academic pursuits while simultaneously engaging in globally focused co-curricular activities, all of which make for a rich and long-lasting educational experience.

For more information, please contact the GCD Initiative coordinator Dr. Terry Konn (tkonn@brookdalecc.edu) or visit us online:
www.brookdalecc.edu/international/global-distinction

Student Curricular Award Recipients

Selected by Professor Margo Wolfson, Biology

Lacey Ramos, Medical Experimentation Ethics

Selected by Professor Thomas Vorbach, Business

Jade Glab, Profitability and Consequences: Global Exportation of the Western Diet

Selected by Professor Jim Cody, English

Phoebe Carr, Adverse Affects of the Palm Oil Industry
Rebecca Fried, Water Pollution

Selected by Professor Donna Pope, English

Abdullah Khan, Global Impact of Environmental Pollution
Bulan Thassanid, Renewable Energy Solutions Across the Globe

Selected by Professor Kathleen Kennedy, English

Nilesh Gautam, Saving Civilians Living Under Conflict

Selected by Professor Kelsey Maki, English

Matt Grogan, Stabilizing South Sudan
Tate Hewitt, Navigating Difference: Expectation and Error in Cross-Cultural Travel

Selected by Professor Elana Maloney, English

Drew Fitzgerald, Global Poverty
James Slomian, Analysis of "Painted Truths and Prayer Beads"

Selected by Professor Ashley Zampogna-Krug, History

Noel Dempsey, Cuban Immigration

Selected by Professor Daniel Leyes, Speech Communication

Anthony Forlizzi, Common Misconceptions about Islam

